Product Benefits

The End of Year training assists with the completion of all the steps necessary to year end your payroll and reset the system for the following year.

You will leave with a clear understanding of both legislative and system updates.

This training is essential for making sure financials balance and the employee payment summaries are correctly prepared and issued.

Program Objectives

Upon successful completion of this training program, you will be able to:

- understand the ATO guidelines for preparation and distribution of Payment Summaries
- manage the steps involved for Year to Date Reconciliation
- produce Payment Summaries
- reset Payforce prior to the first pay run of the new financial year
- understand the General Ledger Year End process
